

Looking for a highly motivated, Signal Construction Supervisor who ensures that the construction components on, and alongside railway tracks are in good and working order, and/or installed to meet Federal and State requirements. Traveling is a key component to this position, and the ability to work in various inclement weather.

Job Responsibilities:

Must be able to work safely in a construction/field environment, following all safety rules and carrying out work in a manner that promotes a safe work environment.

Can regularly communicate with supervisory authorities like FRA, state DOT regulations, and other state and federal regulators.

Has a knowledge of, and skills in: using hand tools, using wrenches, sockets, screwdrivers, measuring tape, etc.

Has a knowledge of, and skills in: using power tools, hydraulic equipment, excavating equipment, portable grinders, rail saws, spike pullers, track wrench machines, and power drills.

Is able to: drive company vehicles, including long-distance driving.

Can delegate work to other employees in a manner that completes multiple tasks simultaneously.

Reviews and analyzes operating practices, provides recommendations based on expertise.

Promotes rail safety in all applicable forums, and creates an environment of safety by choice.

Is flexible enough to carry out all other related tasks, special projects, as required.

Has the ability to lift, carry, push, pull, and load, exert force at a constant rate.

Technical Competencies:

- Safety – making safety a key component of your everyday lifestyle
- Communication
- Decision Quality
- Process oriented
- Decision making
- Organizational knowledge
- Managing across organizational boundaries
- Planning and organizing
- Teamwork and cooperation

Required Experience:

Prior experience on Class 1 Railroad Signal Installation or and is preferred but not required. A background in construction and a willing to learn is desired. Class A CDL driver's license is preferred.

Job Location:

Based in Simpsonville, Kentucky, United States, but willing to travel

Position Type:

Full-Time/Regular

Position Employed By:

TCR Rail Systems, LLC

Candidates must possess a valid driver's license and are subject to a background check and drug screening. TCR provides equal opportunity to all qualified individuals regardless of race, color, religion, age, sex, national origin, veteran status, genetic information, or disability.